

A Busy Day for Policeman Len

Written by: _____

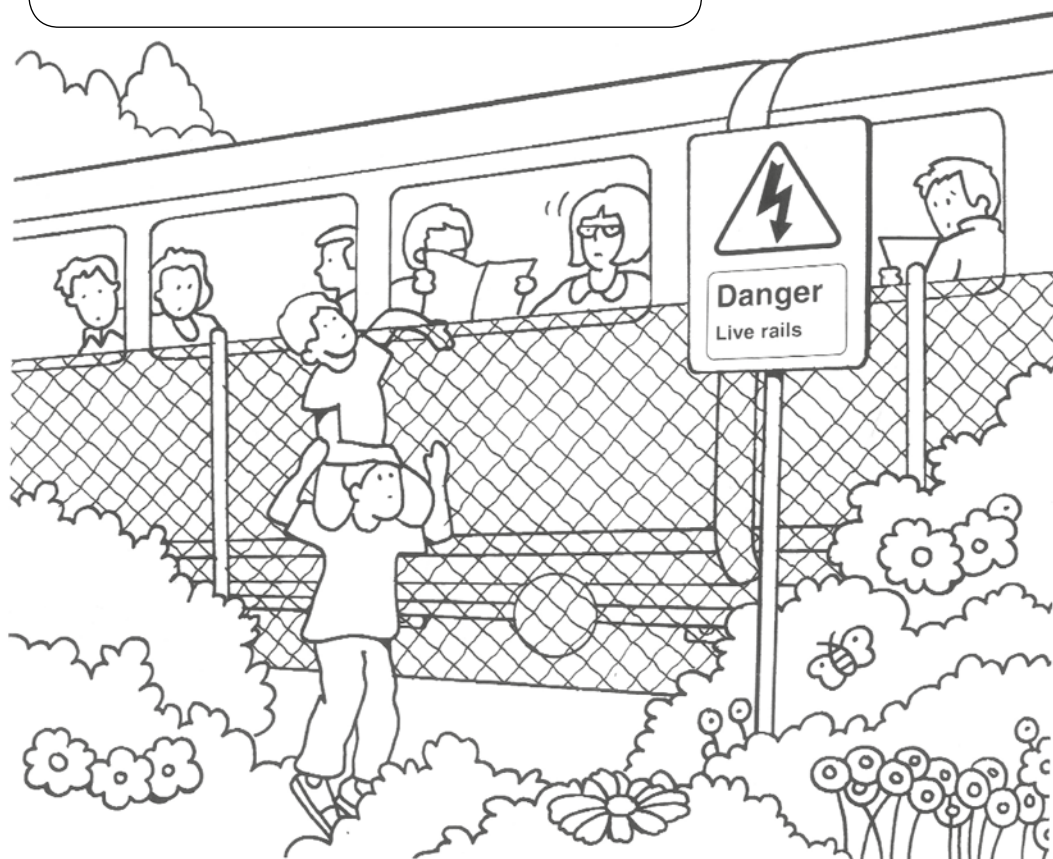

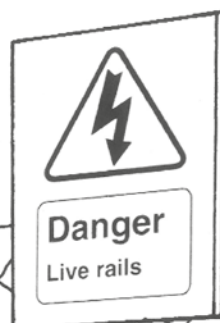

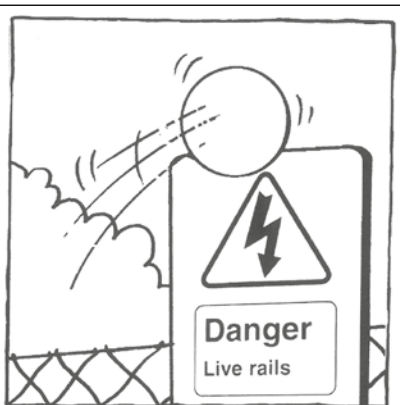

George had got a new football for his birthday and wanted to play with it straight away in the park.

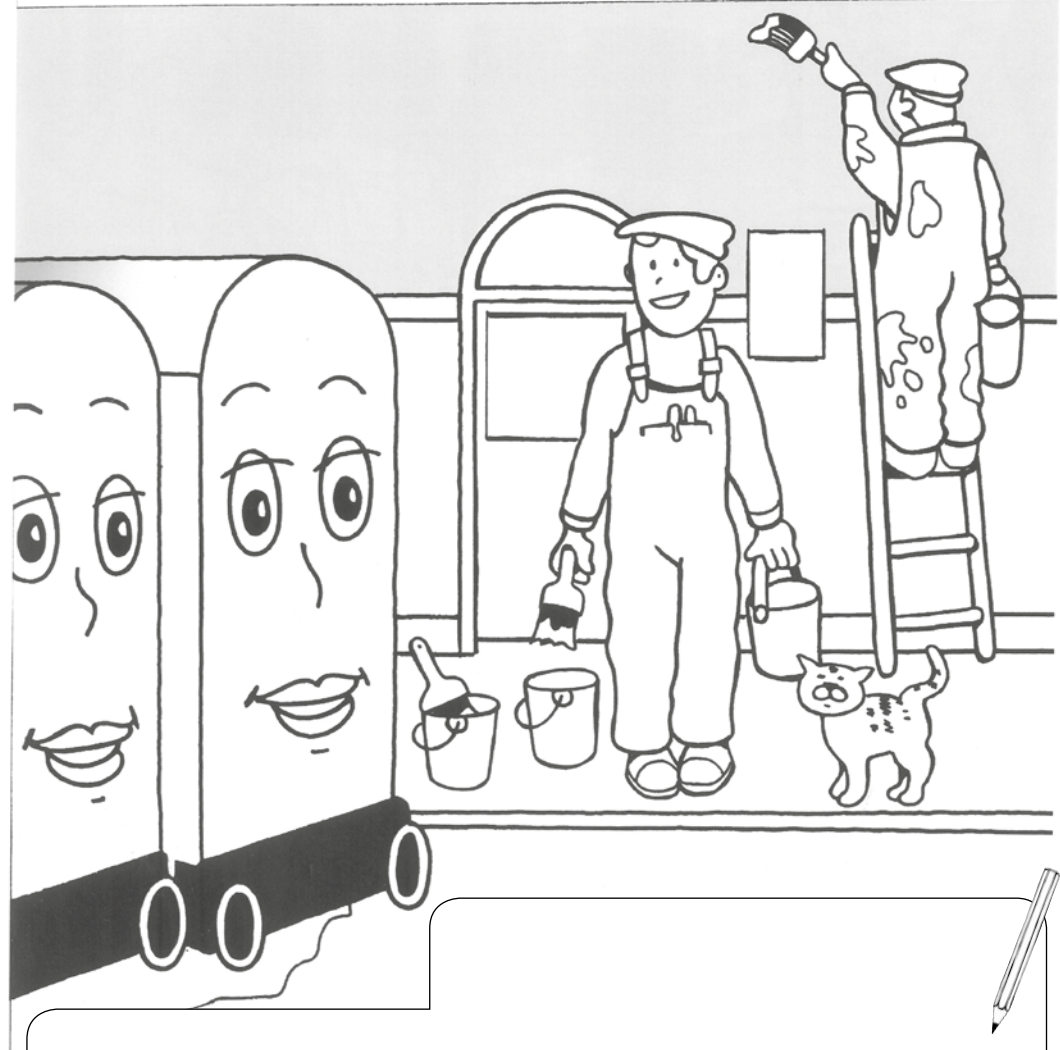

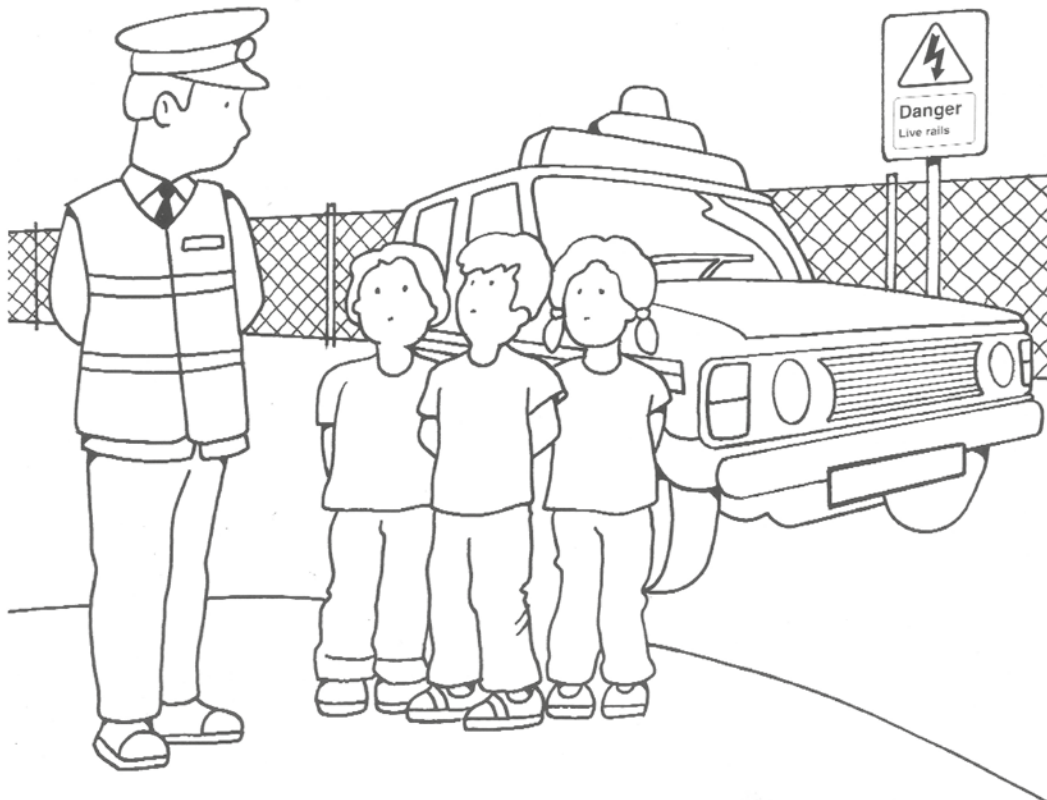

On the way to the park he had called for his two friends, Sophie and Ahmed

Take a look at the pictures and write your own story wherever you see this pencil...

Take a look at the pictures and write your own story wherever you see this pencil...

Take a look at the pictures and write your own story wherever you see this pencil...

